Thank you for supporting Walk for Life

We can't thank you enough for all the support you showed us this year.

Caring for Women is a nonprofit Organization, and as a result of the fundraiser, they will be able to keep their doors open for another year helping families with unplanned pregnancies. Thanks to your help, many families are able to choose life.

Also, congratulations to Fr. Ramos who was the second highest supported pastor in Oroville.

FYI

Fr; Ramos will be on a retreat on June 1-5. Daily masses will be cancelled during this time.

Thank you.

The mission of St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic School, in union with our parish, is to form disciples of Jesus Christ who show reverence for the Eucharist, embody virtuous behavior, live out Gospel values, and pursue academic excellence.

Our prayers and best wishes to both in all their future endeavors.

The Pastor's Voice

Is the Catholic Church Truly Holy? Addressing Scandals and Criticisms

Scandals within the Church, particularly those involving moral or financial misconduct, fuel skepticism about its holiness. Critics argue that such failures disqualify the Church from claiming divine favor. However, Catholic teaching distinguishes between the institution and its members' actions. The Church's holiness is rooted in Christ, not in the flawless behavior of its followers. The CCC acknowledges that "all members of the Church, including her ministers, must acknowledge that they are sinners" (CCC 827). Throughout history, the Church has faced and addressed corruption, from the Reformation-era reforms to modern efforts to address clergy abuse. These responses demonstrate the Church's resilience and commitment to its mission. Critics often overlook the Church's contributions to charity, education, and healthcare, which reflect its holy purpose. The existence of sin within the Church does not negate its divine calling but highlights the need for continual renewal. By confronting its failures, the Church seeks to align more closely with Christ's vision.

Catholic Land Movement

The local chapter of the Catholic Land Movement invites parishioners to a day of farming, fellowship, and fun on Saturday, June 6, 9am - 2pm, at the Deist family's home in Bangor.

Come learn more about the Catholic Land Movement, a lay apostolate that encourages families to cultivate faith-centered lives rooted in land, home, and community. Milk a family dairy cow, make butter and cheese, and enjoy a potluck lunch after praying the Angelus together at noon.
