Ministry Days 2026

You're invited to Ministry Days 2026, the largest gathering of Catholic ministry leaders and volunteers in the Diocese of Sacramento on Saturday, September 26, 2026. This year, the day focuses on mental health and challenges us all to encounter the Sacred Heart of Jesus as the ultimate source of mercy and healing. Enjoy a great day of networking, prayer and fellowship as we discuss new ways to serve families as they navigate the complexities of mental health. Tickets are on sale now at ministrydays.com.

The Pastor's Voice

Is the Catholic Church Truly Holy? The Church's Eschatological* Hope

The Church's holiness is oriented toward its ultimate fulfillment in the Kingdom of God. Catholic theology views the Church as a pilgrim community, journeying toward eternal union with Christ (Revelation 21:2). This eschatological perspective shapes its mission to prepare souls for heaven. The CCC describes the Church as "the bride of Christ," destined for glory despite its earthly struggles (CCC 796). Misconceptions arise when the Church is judged solely by its temporal failures, ignoring its eternal purpose. The Church's sacraments, teachings, and charitable works are all directed toward this heavenly goal. Its endurance through persecution and division reflects a hope rooted in Christ's promises. The Church's holiness is thus both present and future, realized now but fully perfected in eternity. This forward-looking vision inspires Catholics to live holy lives by keeping its eyes on eternity, the Church remains a sign of God's kingdom.

* Eschatology is the study of the eschaton, of the last things. It deals with God's eternity and man's final relationship with God. And so, it pertains to questions concerning heaven, hell, purgatory, the particular and final judgments, the resurrection of the body, and the new heavens and the new earth.
